

CELEBRATING CENTENARIANS

George Blevins, 100

George Blevins is a bowling champion at age 100. "I've been bowling regularly for 93 years" he says proudly. "I don't think anyone else can say that."

A native of Kentucky, George traveled to Louisville at the beginning of July to participate in the 2007 National Senior Games. He successfully defended his title and came away with another gold medal.
