CELEBRATING CENTENARIANS

Sadie Salerno, 101

Sadie celebrates her 100th!

Sadie Salerno turns 101 this month!

Born in Manhattan's Little Italy in 1906, Sadie, one of six children in the family, attended an all-girl Catholic school.

At age 16, Sadie learned to use a sewing machine and began working as a seamstress. Later, she met Salvatore Salerno; he worked in the same building. They married in 1925, traveling to the church in a horse-drawn carriage.

She and Sal moved into a bungalow and Sadie went to work at her husband's parents' resort in New Jersey. They had three children: Paul, Robert and Pauline.
