

CELEBRATING CENTENARIANS

Otis G. Clark, 105

Otis G. Clark was born in February of 1903 in Oklahoma, which at the time was still Indian Territory; Oklahoma became a state in 1907.

At the young age of 25, Otis converted to Christianity and became an evangelist. He has served as an international evangelist for 80 years. Otis is presently going strong at the young age of 105, as he continues to preach and write about the oracles of God. He lives independently, takes no medications, eats what he wishes and has his own car.
