The four generations of Leo Joseph Lawrence Harrison Vineyards: (l-r) Emily, Carolyn, Donna Lee and Lillian, 100.

Active centenarians are everywhere! Lillian Harrison, a new centenarian in October of 2007, is co-owner of Leo Joseph Lawrence Harrison Vineyards, St. Helena, Calif., which debuted its 2005 Cabernet Sauvignon at Lillian's 100th birthday party. The company is unique in that it has four generations involved. And they're all women: 100-year-old Lillian, her daughter and co-owner, Carolyn Harrison Lawrence and Carolyn's daughter, Donna Lee Lawrence Costa, who helps with the accounting and business side of the organization. The youngest member is Lillian's great-granddaughter, Erika Lawrence, who will be in sales after graduating from college. Read more about Lillian: www.adlercentenarians.org.
