

CELEBRATING CENTENARIANS

Joe Stonis, 100

Oldest National Arbor Foundation Award recipient at 91

Joe Stonis is a man who was ahead of the times, but now, at 100, is right in step. Thirty years ago when he retired to Florida with his second wife, Doris, he became an advocate for green space and beautification. His chosen area, he recalls, “looked like a desert when I first saw it. I first noticed the ugly terrain from the plane, and by the time we landed I had decided that if this was going to be where I would spend the rest of my life, I had to do something to improve it!” Improve it, he did, in what is now a lush town on the Gulf coast.
